2. Term. The term of this lease shall be twenty (20) years beginning on the _____ day of _____, 20____ (Commencement Date) and ending on the _____ day of _____, 20____, unless sooner terminated as herein provided.
3. Rent. Tenant covenants and agrees to pay rent to the Landlord on the first (1st) day of each and every month of the term of this Lease Agreement, in advance, via wire transfer to an account designated by Landlord, without notice, demand, offset, or deduction in lawful money of the United States of America, rent as follows:

MONTHS	ANNUAL RATE	MONTHLY RATE	MULTIPLIER
0-6			1.05
7-12			1.10
13-18			1.15
19-24			1.20
25 and thereafter			1.25

The Tenant's rent rate, as shown hereinabove, shall change upon notification of change of Landlord's interest rate on debt service for financing of the Demised Premise. Landlord shall notify Tenant within ten (10) days of any notification received from its Lender of any interest rate changes as well as the resulting revised rental rate ("revised rental rate.") The revised rental rate shall be determined by multiplying the initial rental rate amount found above times (X) the new interest rate factor found below in Paragraph 3.c. The result shall equal the revised rental rate. The formula for the revised rental rate calculation is:

Formula: $$ \underline{a} \times \underline{b} = $ \underline{c}$ a= initial rental rate
b= Paragraph 3.c. factor
c= revised rental rate

The rental rate may increase after the Commencement Date of this Lease Agreement due to additional costs incurred by Landlord. Such additional expenditures may include, but are not limited to the following: direct out-of-pocket refinance costs, alterations to the Demised Premise required by any regulatory agency unless otherwise agreed to in this Lease Agreement, or any alterations, enhancements or repairs requested by Tenant and agreed to by Landlord. The formula for increases due to an increase in the development cost is as follows:

Formula: $$ a + b = $ c$ a= current rental rate

b= amount of increase due to additional expenditures based on a twenty (20) year amortization at Landlord's then current debt service interest rate payable monthly.

c= revised rental rate.

- b. Beginning the first day of month sixty-one (61) of the lease term, the rental rate, as shown and as calculated above, shall be ANNUALLY increased an additional two percent (2%), as set forth below:

Formula: $$ a \times 102 = $ b$ a= rent in effect at the anniversary of the Commencement Date

b= revised rental rate

- c. The Paragraph 3.c multiplier factor to be used in calculating rental amounts is shown below, adjacent to the corresponding interest rate. The multiplier factor shall be determined based upon Landlord's then current interest rate on any money borrowed to finance all or any part of the Demised Premise.

In the event the Landlord's interest rate changes, then on the first (1st) day of the month following such change Tenant shall pay the revised rental rate as calculated. Landlord shall calculate the revised rental rate in accordance with the interest rate change utilizing the multiplier factors shown below. Fractional interest rates not listed herein are to be rounded up to the next higher interest rate shown. For example: 6.8% is to be rounded up to 7.0% and the corresponding multiplier factor applied.

In the event the Landlord has no financing on the property the interest rate shall be adjusted quarterly and shall be calculated at 2.0 percentage points over the lesser of:

- i. The prime lending rate as published in the Wall Street Journal, Midwest Edition or successor publication, but no less than six percent (6.0%); or
- ii. The highest rate allowed by the State of Arkansas;
- iii. But the interest rate shall not be in excess of any applicable usury law or regulation of said state.

- d. Tenant shall furnish to Landlord certain information as Landlord may reasonably require during the term of this Lease. This information shall include the following:

- i Facility census shall be provided to Landlord on the first day of each month between the hours of 8 a.m. 5 p.m. This information may be furnished by telephone or facsimile.
 - ii Quarterly financial statements on facility are to be provided within 30 days of period ending date.
 - iii Annual financial statements on facility and principals and Medicare and Medicaid cost reports are to be provided to Landlord within 30 days of the date prepared. Landlord shall be furnished copies of all revisions and adjustments to these cost reports.
 - iv Other financial information Landlord or Landlord's lender may reasonably require.
 - v A copy of the initial license and/or any subsequently issued license(s) shall be provided to Landlord within five (5) days of receipt by Tenant.
 - vi Currently valued Loss Runs on the insurance policies in effect for the previous five years. The Loss Runs shall be provided to Landlord annually within thirty (30) days of policy expiration date and shall be furnished on all policies covering real and personal property, general liability and professional liability.
- e. Should Commencement Date occur on a day other than the first (1st) day of a calendar month, the term of this lease shall begin on the first (1st) day of the next month. The first installment of rent shall be due and payable on or before the first day of that month and shall include pro rata rental for the days between Commencement Date and the first day of the month. Such installments of rent shall be paid to Landlord at the address specified in this lease or elsewhere as designated from time to time by written notice from Landlord to Tenant.
- f. If Landlord does not receive from Tenant any monthly rental payment within five (5) days after such payment is due, Landlord, at its option, may charge Tenant a late charge and handling fee equal to five percent (5%) of the monthly rental payment, which shall be deemed additional rent, and such late charge and handling fee shall be due and payable by Tenant to Landlord upon notice to Tenant. In addition, if any check of Tenant is returned to Landlord unpaid for any reason, Landlord, at his option, may thereafter require Tenant to pay rent and other charges payable hereunder by certified or cashier's check or by electronic transfer of funds.

4. Real Estate Taxes and Assessments.

- a. Tenant shall pay when due and payable and before delinquent, all Impositions against the Demised Premises during the term of this lease. Tenant may pay any Impositions in installments, if payment may be so made without penalty, except that any Impositions which Tenant has elected to pay in installments shall be paid in full by Tenant prior to sixty (60) days before the expiration of the lease term.
- b. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary and without in any way diminishing Tenant's obligations to pay the Impositions under the immediately preceding Section, Tenant shall, at the same time and in the same manner as the monthly rental payments become, deposit with Landlord an amount equal to one-twelfth (1/12) of the estimated Impositions for the applicable calendar year (as such amount may be estimated by Landlord and provided to Tenant prior to each calendar year) (each such deposit, individually a "Impositions Payment" and collectively the "Impositions Payments"). Landlord shall hold such estimated Impositions Payments in escrow to insure that Impositions are timely paid in full to the applicable taxing authority each calendar year. Upon Landlord's receipt of the year end statement for the Impositions from the applicable taxing authority, Landlord shall (i) cause the Impositions to be paid to the applicable taxing authority prior to delinquency and (ii) reconcile the total amount of Tenant's Impositions Payments for that calendar year with the actual amount of Impositions due for that particular calendar year. If such reconciliation reveals that the total amount of Tenant's Impositions Payments are less than the amount of the Impositions finally assessed against the Demised Premises for that particular calendar year, Tenant shall remit the deficiency to Landlord within ten (10) days after Landlord's delivery to Tenant of a written statement for the deficiency. If the reconciliation reveals that the total amount of Tenant's Impositions Payments for that calendar year exceed the amount of the Impositions finally assessed against the Demised Premises for that particular calendar year, Landlord shall credit the overpayment to Tenant's next Impositions Payment due.

- c. Tenant shall pay when due and before delinquent all taxes, charges and levies assessed against the personal property, trade fixtures and inventory owned by Tenant and placed, stored or used by Tenant in conjunction with the Demised Premises.
- d. ~~Impositions for any fraction of a tax year occurring at the commencement or the~~ expiration of the term of this lease shall be prorated between the parties hereto upon the ratio of the number of days in each fractional tax year to 365 days.
- e. Nothing contained in this lease shall require Tenant to pay any franchise, corporate, estate, inheritance, income, profits or revenue tax or any other tax, assessment or charge or levy upon the rent payable by Tenant under this lease; provided, however, that if at any time during the term of the lease under the laws of the State or any political subdivision thereof, methods of taxation prevailing at commencement of the term hereof shall be altered so as to cause the whole or any part of the real estate taxes or general assessment levied or assessed against the Demised Premises to be levied, assessed or imposed upon the rents received therefrom, then all such taxes and assessments shall be deemed to be included within the term "Impositions" for the purposes hereof and Tenant shall pay and discharge the same as herein provided with respect of payment of Impositions.
- f. Tenant shall furnish to Landlord, within thirty (30) days after the date when any Impositions becomes due and payable, official receipts of the appropriate taxing authority or other evidence satisfactory to Landlord showing the payment thereof.

The failure of Tenant to furnish Landlord with such receipts or other evidence shall not be deemed a default unless Tenant fails to comply within fifteen (15) days after written request by Landlord.

- g. Tenant shall not be required to pay, discharge or remove any Impositions so long as Tenant shall contest the amount or validity of such Impositions by appropriate proceedings which shall operate to prevent or stay the collection of the Impositions so contested and if Tenant shall have provided Landlord with a bond satisfactory to Landlord in an amount equal to the unpaid amount so contested, together with all interest and penalties in connection therewith and all charges that may or might be assessed against or become a charge on the Demised Premises or any part thereof.

During such contest Landlord shall have no right to pay the Impositions contested except as provided herein. Upon the termination of such proceedings, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord proof of the amount of the Impositions as finally determined and shall pay such Impositions, in which event the bond will be returned by Landlord to Tenant.

If such Impositions are not paid by Tenant upon termination of such proceeding, the bond may be cashed and applied by Landlord to the payment, removal and discharge of the Impositions, and the interest and penalties in connection therewith. Any costs, fees or other liabilities accruing in any such proceedings and any deficiency shall be paid by the Tenant.

If during such proceeding, Landlord deems the bond deposited with it insufficient, Tenant shall upon demand deposit with Landlord such additional bond or bonds as Landlord may reasonably request, and upon failure of Tenant to do so, the bond or bonds heretofore deposited may be cashed and applied by Landlord to the payment, removal, and discharge of such Impositions, and the interest and penalties in connection therewith and any costs, fees or other liability accruing in any proceeding, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to Tenant.

Tenant shall give Landlord written notice of any such contest and Landlord, at Tenant's sole expense, shall join in any such proceeding, if any law, rule or regulation shall so require. Landlord shall not be subjected to any liability for the payment of any costs or expenses in connection with any proceedings and Tenant will indemnify and save Landlord harmless from any such costs and expenses.

- h. If Tenant shall default in the payment of any Impositions required to be paid hereunder by Tenant and Landlord elects to pay the Impositions, Tenant shall be liable to Landlord for such taxes and assessments paid by Landlord as additional rent, as well as any penalties occasioned by Tenant's default in the payment of same, which amount shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord upon demand plus interest at the highest rate allowed by law by State law ten (10) days after demand until such payment.
- i. Tenant may, at Tenant's expense, contest the collection or assessment of any Impositions. If Tenant so elects to contest such amounts, Tenant shall, prior to the prosecution or defense of any such claim, notify Landlord in writing of its decision to pursue such contest.

5. Insurance. Tenant covenants and agrees that it shall, at its own cost, at all times during the term of this lease, procure and maintain certain insurance for benefit of Landlord, Tenant, Mortgagees, and other persons having an insurable interest AS THEIR INTEREST MAY APPEAR. The cost for any such repairs shall be deemed to be additional rent hereunder and shall be paid by Tenant upon demand by Landlord plus interest at the highest rate allowed by State law from ten (10) days after such demand until payment.

Nothing in this lease shall be construed as giving the Tenant any right, power or authority to contract for or permit renting of any services or the furnishing of any materials that would give rise to the filing of any mechanic's or materialman's lien against the interest of the Landlord in the Demised Premises.
- b. In the case of the filing of any lien on the interest of the Landlord or the Tenant in the Demised Premises, Tenant shall cause the same to be discharged of record within sixty (60) days after filing of same. or damage may, in any way, arise from or out of the occupancy or use by Tenant, its agents, servants, employees, contractors, patrons, guests, licensees or business invitees of the Demised Premises.

Tenant covenants and agrees that in case Landlord shall be made a party to any litigation commenced by or against Tenant or relating to this lease or to the Demised Premises, the Tenant will pay all judgments, costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees and court costs, incurred by or imposed upon Landlord by virtue of any litigation unless a judgment is rendered in such litigation against Landlord or its agents or employees based upon their negligence or willful misconduct. The amount of all such judgments, costs and expenses, including attorney fees and court cost, shall be deemed additional rent and an obligation owing by Tenant to Landlord bearing interest at highest rate allowed by State law from ten (10) days after the date of demand.

- 16. Landlord's Right of Entrance. Landlord and it's authorized agents have the right to enter the Demised Premises at any reasonable time and after reasonable notice by telephone or otherwise for purpose of inspecting the general condition and state of repair of the Demised Premises or otherwise for any other legal reason or purpose. Landlord or it's authorized agents shall also have the right to enter the Demised Premises at any time without prior notice in the case of any emergency with respect to the Demised Premises.

This right of entrance given to Landlord shall be without liability to Tenant for damage or injury to property, persons or businesses and without effecting a constructive or actual eviction, or disturbance of Tenant's use or possession or giving rise to any claim for set off or abatement of rent.

Landlord shall have the right but not the obligation to enter the Demised Premises at least annually for the purpose of inspecting the general condition and state of repair of the Demised Premises.

Landlord's right of entry shall also include a right of entry to show the Demised Premises to prospective tenants at reasonable hours and if they are vacated, to prepare them for preoccupancy. - ii. Permit any assignment of this lease or any estate or interest therein by operation of law, or
- iii. Sublet the Demised Premises or any part thereof.

Consent by Landlord to one or more assignments or subletting shall not operate as a waiver of Landlord's right as to any subsequent assignment or subletting.

- b. Notwithstanding any assignment or subletting, Tenant and any guarantor of Tenant's obligations under this lease shall at all times remain fully responsible and liable for the payment of the rent herein specified and for compliance with all of Tenant's obligations under this lease. Any amendment or modification to this lease with approved assignee subsequent hereto shall not release Tenant from any liability under the terms of this lease or under the terms of any such amendment. Tenant agrees to promptly deliver to Landlord executed copies of all assignments or subletting documents as well as copies of any subsequent modifications or amendments thereto.
- c. If any event of default should occur while the Demised Premises or any part thereof are assigned or sublet, Landlord, in addition to any other remedies provided by law, may at its option collect directly from such assignee or subtenant all rents becoming due to Tenant under such assignment or sublease and apply such rents against any sums due Landlord from Tenant and Tenant hereby authorizes and directs any such assignee or subtenant to make such payments of rent directly to Landlord upon receipt of notice from Landlord. No direct collection by Landlord from any such assignee or subtenant shall constitute a novation or a release of Tenant or any guarantor of Tenant from the further performance of Tenant's obligations.
- d. Receipt by Landlord of rent from any assignee, subtenant or occupant of the Demised Premises shall not be deemed a waiver of this covenant. Receipt by Landlord of any rents, any such assignee or subtenant is obligated to make, shall be a full complete release, discharge and acquittance to such assignee or subtenant to the extent of any amount of rent so paid to Landlord. Landlord is authorized and empowered, on behalf of Tenant, to endorse the name of Tenant evidencing payment of rent, or proceeds therefrom.

- e. - f. Neither this lease nor the terms hereby demised shall be mortgaged, pledged or encumbered by Tenant, nor shall Tenant mortgage or pledge its interest in any sublease of the Demised Premises or the rentals payable thereunder.
- g. Any assignment, mortgage, pledge, hypothecation, encumbrance, subletting or licensing of this lease, the leasehold estate hereby created or the Demised Premises, or any portion thereof, either voluntary or involuntary, whether by operation of law or otherwise, in violation of the provisions of this lease shall be null and void, and shall further constitute default under this lease.
- h. Landlord shall have the right to transfer, assign and convey and hold in whole or in part the Demised Premises and any and all of its rights under this lease, and in the event Landlord assigns its right under this lease, Landlord shall thereby be released from any further obligations hereunder, and Tenant agrees to look solely to such successor in interest of the Landlord for performance of such obligations.

In this event, the rent shall be abated as of the date of such damage.
- c. If Landlord does not terminate this lease, Landlord shall within seventy-five (75) days after the date of such damage commence to repair and restore the Demised Premises. Landlord shall proceed with reasonable diligence to restore the Demised Premises to substantially the same condition in which it was immediately prior to the happening of the casualty. Landlord shall not be responsible for delays outside of its control.

Tenant agrees to pay all costs of such restoration not covered by insurance proceeds. Landlord shall not be required to rebuild or repair any part of Tenant's property.
- e. Landlord shall not be liable for any inconvenience or annoyance to Tenant or injury to the business of Tenant resulting in any way from such damage or repair.

- f. If the Demised Premises are damaged by fire or other casualty resulting from the fault or negligence of Tenant or any of Tenant's agents, employees, visitors or business invitees, the rent hereunder shall not be diminished during repair of such damage, and Tenant shall be liable to Landlord for the cost and expense of such repair and restoration of the Demised Premises to the extent such cost and expenses are not covered by insurance proceeds. Such uncovered costs or expenses shall be considered as additional rent and Tenant shall pay Landlord the uncovered costs thereof plus interest at the highest rate allowed by State law from ten (10) days after date of demand by Landlord.

20. Condemnation.

- a. If the whole or substantially the whole of the Demised Premises shall be taken for any public or quasi-public use by any governmental authority under law, ordinance or regulation or by right of eminent domain or should be sold to the condemning authority under threat of condemnation so as to render the Demised Premises no longer suitable for its intended purpose, this lease shall terminate as of the date when physical possession of the Demised Premises is taken by the condemning authority.
- b. In the event the portion of the Demised Premises affected is used only for parking, this lease shall not terminate and Landlord shall have the option of providing an equivalent number of parking spaces on other property appurtenant to the Demised Premises.
- c. If less than the whole or substantially the whole of the Demised Premises is taken or sold or the option in the preceding subsection is employed by Landlord, this lease shall not be terminated and the rent payable shall be diminished by an amount representing that part of said rent as shall properly be allocable to the portion of the Demised Premises which was so taken or sold. Landlord shall, at Landlord's sole expense, restore and reconstruct the Demised Premises to substantially the former condition to the extent that the same in Landlord's sole judgment may be feasible. Landlord shall not be required to spend for such work any amount in excess of the amount received by Landlord as compensation for damages for the part of the Demised Premises taken (over and above amounts going to the mortgagee of the property taken).

- d. Landlord shall be entitled to receive all the compensation awarded upon a taking of any or all of the Demised Premises included in any award for the value of any unexpired term of this lease. Tenant expressly waives all claims to any such compensation except that Tenant may prosecute any claim directly against the condemning authority for loss of business or relocation expenses or depreciation to, damage to or cost of removal of, or for the value of, personal property belonging to Tenant.

21. Waiver of Subrogation. Each party hereto waives any and every claim which arises or may arise in its favor against the other party hereto during the term of this lease or any extension or renewal thereof for any and all loss of or damage to any of its property to the extent that such loss or damage is recovered from a valid and collectible fire and extended coverage insurance policy to and not in limitation of any other waiver or release contained in this lease with respect to any loss or damage to the parties hereto. Each party shall immediately give to each insurance company which has issued policies of fire and extended coverage written notice of the terms of this waiver and each party shall have the insurance policy properly endorsed, if necessary, to prevent the invalidation of the coverage of any insurance coverage by reason of this waiver.

22. Personal Property. All property of every kind and description which may in time be placed in or on the Demised Premises by Tenant including, but not limited to, the equipment and inventory of Tenant shall be at Tenant's sole risk and Tenant by this Section waives any and all claim against Landlord for damage to any such goods, equipment or inventory. Tenant will promptly replace all worn out or obsolete personal property and will not, without prior written consent of the Landlord, remove from the Demised Premises any personal property except for temporary removal for repair or except to be replaced by Tenant by an article of equal suitability and value free and clear of any lien or security interest. Tenant may place other personal property on the Demised Premises and, except for properly replacing personal property, any such property shall be the property of Tenant except upon the Event of Default when it will become property of Landlord. Tenant will release any and all rights to the Property, including Tenant's personal property, computers, vehicles, Supplies, and equipment utilized in the operation of the Facility, which shall become the property of Landlord and shall sign any documents or instruments Landlord deems necessary to accomplish such release. Any personal property which is affixed by Tenant to the building or other improvements constituting the Demised Premises shall become the property of Landlord.

- a. At the termination of this lease, whether caused by lapse of time or otherwise, Tenant shall at once surrender possession of the Demised Premises and deliver said premises to Landlord in as good repair and condition as at commencement of Tenant's occupancy, reasonable wear and tear and damage or destruction by fire or other casualty excepted. Tenant shall deliver to Landlord all keys to the Demised Premises.
- b. If such possession is not immediately surrendered, Landlord may enter upon and take possession of the Demised Premises and expel or remove Tenant and any other person who may be occupying said premises or any part thereof by force, if necessary, without having any civil or criminal liability therefore, but subject only to applicable law, rules or regulation of the appropriate governmental entity.

- c. All alterations, additions or improvements, whether temporary or permanent in character, made in or upon the Demised Premises, either by Landlord or Tenant, shall remain on the Demised Premises.
- d. All of Tenant's property may be removed by Tenant at the termination of this lease provided Tenant is not at that time in default under this lease. Such removal shall be accomplished in a good workmanlike manner so as not to damage the Demised Premises or the primary structure or structural qualities of the Demised Premises or the plumbing, electrical lines, or the utilities. If Tenant is in default, then Tenant will release any and all rights to the Demised Premises, including Tenant's personal property, computers, vehicles, Supplies, and equipment utilized in the operation of the Facility, which shall become the property of Landlord and shall sign any documents or instruments Landlord deems necessary to accomplish such release.
- e. All Tenant's property not promptly removed after such termination shall be conclusively presumed to have been abandoned by Tenant and Landlord may, at its option, take over the possession of such property and either declare the same to be the property of Landlord by written notice to Tenant or, at the sole cost and expense of Tenant, remove the same or any part thereof in any manner that Landlord chooses and store the same without incurring liability to Tenant or any other person.

 - xi. If Tenant is subject to or has imposed against it, for the second time within any twenty-four (24) month period, a Category 1 or Category 2 remedy (as those terms are defined in 42 C.F.R. § 488.408(d) and (e) by the Texas Department of Aging and Disability Services, the Centers for Medicaid and Medicare Services, or any other state or federal agency authorized to regulate nursing facilities and/or impose such remedies or succeeding governing authorities or similar or replacement rules or regulations governing the same.
- b. If any event of default occurs, Landlord shall have the right at its election, then or at any time thereafter while such event of default continues, to pursue any one or more of the following remedies:

- i. Terminate this lease in which event Tenant shall immediately surrender the Demised Premises to Landlord and if Tenant fails to do so, Landlord may, without prejudice to any other remedy Landlord may have for possession or arrearage in rent, enter upon and take possession of the Demised Premises and expel or remove Tenant or any other person who may be occupying said premises or any part thereof by force, if necessary, without having any civil or criminal liability therefore. Tenant agrees to pay Landlord on demand the amount of all loss and damage which Landlord suffers by reason of such termination whether through inability to relet the Demised Premises on satisfactory terms or otherwise, including, but not limited to, (a) all reasonable expenses necessary to relet the Demised Premises for a new tenant or tenants, including advertisement and brokerage fees and (b) any increase in insurance premiums caused by the vacancy of the Demised Premises.

Nothing contained in this lease shall limit or prejudice the right of Landlord to prove for and obtain in proceedings for bankruptcy or insolvency an amount equal to the maximum allowed by any statute or rule of law governing the proceedings in which damages are to be proved, whether the amount be greater, equal to or less than the amount of loss or damages referred to above.

- ii. Enter upon and take possession of the Demised Premises and expel or remove the Tenant or any other person who may be occupying said premises or any part thereof without criminal liability. Without terminating this lease, Landlord may, but is not obligated to, relet the Demised Premises or any part thereof for the account of the Tenant in the name of the Tenant or Landlord or otherwise without notice to Tenant and for such term or terms and on such conditions and for such uses as Landlord in its absolute discretion determines. Landlord may collect and receive any rents payable by reason of such reletting and Tenant agrees to pay Landlord on demand all reasonable expenses necessary to relet the Demised Premises for a new tenant, including advertisements and brokerage fees, and Tenant agrees to pay Landlord on demand any deficiency that may arise by reason of such reletting. Landlord shall not be responsible or liable for any failure to relet the Demised Premises or any part thereof or for any failure to collect any rent due upon such reletting. No such reentry or taking of possession of the Demised Premises by Landlord shall be to terminate this lease unless written notice of such termination is given to Tenant.
- iii. Enter upon the Demised Premises by force, if necessary, without having any civil or criminal liability and do whatever Tenant is obligated to do under the terms of this lease. Tenant agrees to reimburse Landlord on demand for any expenses which Landlord incurs in thus effecting compliance with Tenant's obligations under this Lease and Tenant further agrees that Landlord shall not be liable for any damages resulting to Tenant from such action, whether caused by the negligence of Landlord or otherwise.

- c. No repossession of or reentering on the Demised Premises shall relieve Tenant or any Guarantor of its liabilities and obligations under this lease. All such liabilities and obligations survive such repossession or reletting. In the event of any repossession or reentering on the Demised Premises or part thereof by reason of the occurrence of an event of default, Tenant will pay and continue to remain obligated to Landlord for the rent.

- d. No right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved by Landlord is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy now or hereafter existing at law or equity. In addition to the remedies provided in this lease, Landlord shall be entitled to injunctive relief in case of violation or attempted or threatened violation of any of the covenants, agreements, conditions or provisions of this lease or to a decree compelling performance of any of the covenants, agreements, conditions or provisions of this lease or any other remedy allowed to Landlord by law or equity.

25. No Implied Waiver. The failure of Landlord to insist upon the strict performance of any covenant or agreement or to exercise any option, right, power, or remedy contained in this lease shall not be construed as a waiver or a relinquishment thereof for the future. The waiver of or redress for any violation of any term, covenant, agreement, or condition contained in this lease shall not prevent a subsequent act, which would have originally constituted a violation, from having all the force and effect of an original violation. No express waiver shall affect any condition other than the one specified in such waiver and that one only for the time and in the manner specifically stated. A receipt by Landlord of any rent with knowledge of the breach of any covenant or agreement contained in this lease shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any other rights unless the same shall have been made in writing and signed by Landlord.

26. Waiver by Tenant. Tenant hereby waives and surrenders for it and all claiming by, through, and under it, including all creditors of all kinds:

- a. Any right or privilege which it or any of them may have under any present constitution, statute, or rule of law to redeem the Demised Premises or to have a continuance of this lease for the term demised after termination of Tenant's right of occupancy by order or judgment of any court or by any legal process or writ, or under the terms of this lease, or after the termination of the term of this lease, and any exemption of the property from liability for debt or distress for rent, and
- b. The provisions of any law relating to notice and/or delay in levy of execution in case of eviction of a Tenant for nonpayment of rent.

27. Attorneys' Fees and Legal Expenses. If either party institutes any action or proceeding in court to enforce any lease provision or for damages by, on account of an alleged breach of this lease or for any other judicial remedy, the prevailing party shall be entitled to receive from the losing party all reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs in connection with such proceedings.

If any party names Landlord in any litigation because of some action, inaction, or fault of Tenant, or related in any manner to Tenant's use or occupancy of the Demised Premises, Tenant agrees to pay all of Landlord's reasonable attorney's fees and court costs in connection with such proceedings.

28. Landlord's Lien. In addition to the statutory landlord's lien and in order to secure payment of all rentals and other sums of money becoming due from Tenant, and to secure payment of damages or loss which Landlord may suffer by reason of the breach of Tenant of any covenant, agreement, or condition contained herein, Tenant grants to Landlord a security interest in and an express contractual lien upon all goods, wares, equipment, fixtures, furniture, improvements, Supplies, and all other personal property of Tenant, including replacement property and any proceeds therefrom, presently or which may hereafter be situated upon the Demised Premises (except for such part of such property as may be exchanged, replaced, or sold from time to time in the ordinary course of Tenant's operations). No property shall be removed without the consent of Landlord, until all arrearage(s) in rent and all other sums of money due the Landlord shall first have been paid and discharged and all the covenants, agreements, and conditions of this lease have been fully complied with and performed by Tenant.

Upon the occurrence of an event of default by Tenant, Landlord may, in addition to any other remedies provided herein, enter upon the Demised Premises and take possession of any and all goods, wares, equipment, fixtures, furniture, improvements, Supplies, and other personal property of Tenant situated on the Demised Premises, without liability for trespass or conversion and Tenant waives any right to notice or hearing prior to such possession by Landlord. Landlord may sell the same at public or private sale, with or without having such property at the sale, after giving Tenant five (5) days notice of the time and place of any public or private sale.

Landlord or its assigns may purchase such items as may be offered for sale, unless otherwise prohibited by law. Any sale made pursuant to the provisions of this Section shall be deemed to have been a sale conducted in a commercially reasonable manner if held upon the Demised Premises after the time, place, and method of sale and general description of the type of property to be sold have been advertised in a newspaper of general circulation in the area of the Demised Premises at least three (3) times prior to the date of sale.

The proceeds from any such disposition, less any and all expenses connected with the taking of possession, holding, and selling of the property (including reasonable attorney's fees and other expenses,) shall be applied as a credit against the indebtedness secured by the security interest granted by this Section. Any surplus shall be paid to Tenant or as otherwise required by law; and the Tenant shall pay any deficiency forthwith.

Upon request by Landlord, Tenant agrees to execute and deliver to Landlord a financing statement and any continuation statement in form(s) sufficient to perfect the security interest of Landlord in the property and proceeds thereof under the provisions of the Business and Commerce Code in force in the State. Landlord agrees to execute any subordination statement required by Tenant in order to obtain financing for the purchase of soft goods in order to furnish and equip the Demised Premises.

29. Subordination. This lease and all rights of Tenant hereunder are subject and subordinate:

- i. To any first lien mortgage or deed of trust, blanket or otherwise, which does now or may hereafter affect the Demised Premises (and which may also affect other property); and
- ii. To any and all increases, renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements, and extensions of any such mortgage or deed of trust.

This provision is hereby declared by Landlord and Tenant to be self operative and no further instrument shall be required to effect such subordination of this lease. Tenant shall, however, upon demand by Landlord or the holder of any lien on the Demised Premises, execute, acknowledge, and deliver to Landlord any and all instruments and certificates that may be necessary or proper to more effectively subordinate this lease and all rights of Tenant hereunder to any such mortgage or deed of trust or to confirm or evidence such subordination.

- b. In the event the Tenant shall fail or neglect to execute, acknowledge, and deliver any such subordination agreement or certificate, Landlord, in addition to any other remedies it may have, may as the agent and attorney in fact of Tenant, execute, acknowledge, and deliver the same. Tenant irrevocably nominates, constitutes and appoints Landlord as Tenant's proper and legal agent and attorney in fact for such purposes. Such power of attorney shall not terminate on disability of the principal.

- c. Tenant covenants and agrees, in the event any proceedings are brought for the foreclosure of any such mortgage or if the Demised Premises be sold pursuant to any such deed of trust, to attorn to the purchaser upon any such foreclosure sale or trustee's sale if so requested by such purchaser and to recognize such purchaser as the Landlord under this lease. Tenant agrees to execute and deliver upon the request of Landlord or of any holder(s) of any of the indebtedness or other obligation secured by any of the mortgages or deeds of trust referred to in this Section or any such purchaser any instrument or certificate which, in the sole judgment of Landlord or of such holder(s) of such purchaser, may be necessary or appropriate in any such foreclosure proceedings or otherwise to evidence such attornment.
- d. Tenant hereby irrevocably appoints Landlord and the holders of the indebtedness or other obligations secured by the aforesaid mortgages and/or deeds of trust and any such purchaser jointly and severally the agent and attorney in fact of Tenant to execute and deliver for and on behalf of Tenant any such agreement or certificate, and Landlord, in addition to any other remedies it may have, may as the agent and attorney in fact of Tenant, execute, acknowledge, and deliver the same. Tenant irrevocably nominates, constitutes and appoints Landlord as Tenant's proper and legal agent and attorney in fact for such purposes. Such power of attorney shall not terminate on disability of the principal.

30. Quiet Enjoyment. So long as Tenant pays the rent when due and payable and keeps and fulfills all of the terms, covenants, agreements, and conditions to be performed by Tenant, Tenant shall at all times during the lease term peaceably and quietly enjoy the Demised Premises without any disturbance from Landlord, subject to the terms, provisions, covenants, agreements, and conditions of this lease.

31. Notice to Landlord and Mortgagee. In the event of any act or omission by

Landlord which would give Tenant the right to damages from Landlord or the right to terminate this lease by reason of a constructive or actual eviction, Tenant shall not sue for such damages or exercise of any such right to terminate until:

- a. It shall have given written notice of such act or omission to Landlord and to the holder(s) of the indebtedness or other obligations secured by any first mortgage or first deed of trust affecting the Demised Premises, if the name and address of such holder(s) shall previously have been furnished to Tenant, and
- b. a reasonable period of time for remedying such act or omission shall have elapsed following the giving of such notice, during which time Landlord and such holder(s), either of them, their agents or employees, shall be entitled to enter upon the Demised Premises and do whatever may be necessary to remedy such act or omission. During the period after the giving of such notice and during the remedying of such act or omission, the rent payable by Tenant for such period as provided in this lease shall be abated and apportioned only to the extent that any part of the Demised Premises shall be untenable.

32. Holding Over by Tenant. Should Tenant or any of its successors in interest continue to hold the Demised Premises after the termination of this lease, whether such termination occurs by lapse of time or otherwise, such holding over shall constitute monthly rental equal to one and one half times the monthly rent provided herein at the time of such termination hereof. Tenant shall be regarded as a tenant from month to month; subject, however, to all of the terms, provisions, covenants, and agreements on the part of the Tenant hereunder. No payments of money by Tenant to Landlord after the termination of this lease shall reinstate, continue, or extend the term of this lease and no extension of this lease after the termination thereof shall be valid unless the same shall be reduced to writing and signed by both Landlord and Tenant.

- 33. Estoppel Certificate and Other Information. Tenant will, upon request by Landlord or holder of any first mortgage on the Demised Premises, execute, acknowledge, and deliver to Landlord or such holder, a statement in writing, certifying that this lease is unmodified and in full effect (or, if there have been modifications, that this lease is in full effect as modified, and setting forth such modification) and the dates to which the rent has been paid, and either stating that to the knowledge of the signer of such certificate no default exists hereunder or specifying each such default of which the signer may have knowledge, it being intended that any such statement by Tenant may be relied upon by any prospective purchaser or mortgagee of the Demised Premises.
- 34. Notices. Each provision of this lease, or of any applicable governmental laws, ordinances, regulations, and other requirements with reference to the sending, mailing or delivery of any notice or with reference to the making of any payment by Tenant to Landlord, shall be deemed to be complied with if the following steps are taken:
- a. All rent and other payments required to be made by Tenant to Landlord shall be payable to Landlord by electronic transfer of funds to a depository account established by Landlord or at such other address as Landlord may specify from time to time by written notice delivered in accordance herewith.
 - b. Any notice or document required to be delivered hereunder shall be deemed to be delivered, whether actually received or not, when deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, registered mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the parties hereto at the respective addresses set out opposite their names below, or at such other address as they have heretofore specified by written notice:

- 35. Real Estate Commissions. Each party hereto represents to the other that he has not authorized any broker or finder to act on his behalf in connection with the lease hereunder and that he has not dealt with any broker or finder purporting to act on behalf of any other party. Each party hereto agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the other from and against any and all claims, losses, damages, costs, or expenses of any kind or character arising out of or resulting from any agreement, arrangement, or understanding alleged to have been made by such party or on his behalf with any broker or finder in connection with this lease or the transaction contemplated hereby.
- 36. Cleaning the Building. The Landlord agrees that the building will be "Broom Cleaned" on or before the Commencement Date. Cleaning and polishing of glass surfaces, porcelain fixtures, and mopping and waxing of floors shall be the responsibility of Tenant. Tenant may elect to clean and wax prior to the Commencement Date so long as said Tenant's cleaning schedule meets with the approval of Landlord. Landlord shall not be liable for expenditures made by Tenant to re-clean or re-wax the Demised Premises in the event Tenant has performed those tasks prior to Commencement Date.
- 37. Joint Venture: This Lease Agreement is not and does not represent, create, or otherwise form, any type of joint venture between Landlord and its affiliates and Tenant and its affiliates. Any intention to create a joint venture or partnership between Landlord and its affiliates and Tenant and its affiliates is expressly disclaimed.

38. Guarantee Provision. If Tenant executes this lease in his individual capacity, then all such Tenants shall also execute the guarantee provisions of this Lease. If the Tenant executing this lease is a corporation, then all stockholders of such corporation or limited liability company owning stock/membership interests at the time of the execution of this lease or any person thereafter acquiring stock or membership interests in said corporation or limited liability company shall execute the guarantee provisions of this lease. Failure to comply with the provisions of this Section shall be an event of default under Section 24 of this lease.

39. Reservations of Landlord. Landlord, at its sole discretion, reserves the right to attach to and extend any and/or all on or offsite utilities which service the Demised Premises at any time during the Lease Term. Further, Landlord reserves the right to cross the Demised Premises with new utilities or an extension of the existing utilities at any time during the Lease Term at Landlord's sole discretion. Landlord shall coordinate all work with Tenant and shall locate its work so as to not unreasonably disrupt Tenant's use of the Demised Premises.

40. Periodic 10% Increases in Medicaid Beds.

- a. Medicaid-certified nursing facilities are eligible for periodic Medicaid bed allocation increases based on high occupancy pursuant to Section 19.2322(f)(3) of Title 40 of the Texas Administrative Code (the "10% Rule"). Specifically, if the occupancy rate of a Medicaid-certified nursing facility is 90% or greater for nine (9) out of twelve (12) months (not necessarily nine consecutive months, so long as nine of the last twelve months have an occupancy rate of at least 90%), the facility may request a 10% increase in its Medicaid beds from the Texas Department of Aging and Disability Services ("DADS"). Following a 10% increase under the 10% Rule, a Medicaid-certified facility may reapply for additional Medicaid beds as early as nine (9) months from the date DADS approves the previous increase under the 10% Rule.

- b. If Tenant operates a Medicaid-certified Facility under this Lease, Tenant agrees to be responsible for the application process with DADS so that the Medicaid beds are increased at every opportunity available under the 10% Rule, up to at least 120 total Medicaid beds in the Facility, and no more than the total licensed capacity of the Facility. Specifically, Tenant will monitor its monthly occupancy rates, and every time the Facility's occupancy rate is 90% or greater for nine of the preceding twelve months, Tenant will notify DADS of this fact and will apply to DADS for a 10% increase in the Facility's Medicaid beds pursuant to the 10% Rule.
- c. Any and every time Tenant's monthly occupancy rates qualify for an increase pursuant to the 10% Rule, Tenant will notify Landlord in writing, and Tenant will apply to DADS for the 10% increase in writing with a copy to Landlord, within ten (10) days of the relevant occupancy data being first available (i.e., when monthly occupancy data is reported to DADS in Tenant's ordinary course of business pursuant to Tenant's reporting requirements under Section 19.2322(m) of Title 40 of the Texas Administrative Code.)
- d. Upon Tenant's request for additional Medicaid beds under the 10% Rule, Tenant agrees to use best faith efforts to cooperate with DADS in the approval process for the increase, and Tenant agrees to immediately notify Landlord of DADS' approval or denial of the increase request upon Tenant's receipt of such written decision from DADS. In the event DADS denies the increase request, Tenant agrees to use best faith efforts to request reconsideration by DADS pursuant to Section 19.2322(k) of Title 40 of the Texas Administrative Code with a copy to Landlord, and Tenant shall timely file the reconsideration request with any evidence appropriately raised for DADS' review at that time in an effort to have the increase request approved. In the event any increase request is denied by DADS following reconsideration, Tenant's obligations shall continue under this Section 42 to apply for periodic increases under the 10% Rule at the next earliest opportunity when the 10% Rule requirements are met again by the Facility's occupancy data.

- 41. Waiver. In the event the Tenant should default under the lease or the lease should for any reason terminate, then the Medicaid and the Medicare contract, the then current facility license, any additional beds granted or to be granted by the State to the Facility, shall revert back to Landlord as both owner and operator, at the sole discretion of Landlord. The Tenant, the principals of the Tenant, and all guarantors do by this instrument forever waive any interest in and relinquish any right to the skilled nursing facility beds whether Medicaid, Medicare, Private Pay or other type, as well as for any subsequent beds issued, added or approved for this Facility (the "beds") and agree that the beds are and shall remain the sole property of Landlord, at its sole discretion.

The Tenant, the principals of the Tenant, and all guarantors understand that by agreeing to this Section of the lease they are forever waiving any interest in and relinquishing any rights and are agreeing not to assert any interest or right in the beds granted to the Facility, or beds that are eligible or earned by or to the Facility but un-issued to the Facility.

- 42. Governing Law and Venue of Actions. This Agreement will be governed by the laws of the State and all parties consent to venue in the County where the Demised Premises is located.

- 43. Severability. Each and every covenant and agreement contained in this lease is, and shall be construed to be, a separate and independent covenant and agreement.

If any term or provision of this lease or the application thereto any person or circumstances shall be determined invalid and unenforceable, the remainder of this lease, or the application of such term or provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected hereby.

44. No Merger. There shall be no merger of this lease or of the leasehold estate hereby created with the fee estate in the Demised Premises or any part thereof by reason of the fact the same person may acquire or hold, directly or indirectly, this lease or the leasehold estate created or any interest in this lease or in such leasehold estate as well as the fee estate in the Demised Premises or any interest in such fee estate.

45. Force Majeure. Whenever a period of time is herein prescribed for action to be taken by Landlord or Tenant, such party shall not be liable or responsible for, and there shall be excluded from the computation for any such period of time, any delays due to strikes, riots, acts of God, shortages of labor or materials, war, governmental laws, regulations, or restrictions or any other causes of any kind whatsoever which are beyond the control of each party.

46. Gender. Words of any gender used in this lease shall be held and construed to include any other gender, and words in the singular number shall be held to include the plural, unless the context otherwise requires.

47. No Representation. Landlord or Landlord's agents have made no representations or promises with respect to the Demised Premises except as herein expressly set forth and no rights, easements, or licenses are acquired by Tenant by implication or otherwise except as expressly set forth in the provisions of this lease.

48. Entire Agreement. This lease sets forth the entire agreement between the parties and no amendment or modification of this lease shall be binding or valid unless expressed in writing executed by both parties hereto.

- 49. Section Headings. The Section headings and numbering contained in this lease are for convenience only and shall in no way enlarge or limit the scope or meaning of the various and several Sections hereof.
- 50. Authority. Each person who executes this Agreement represents and warrants that he or she has the authority of the shareholders or members or of the general or limited partners of said entity to do so, and agrees to indemnify and hold the Landlord harmless from any such claim that such authority did not exist.
- 51. Recitals. All of the recitals and preambles hereinabove set forth, as well as any Exhibit hereto, are hereby incorporated into and made a part of this Agreement.
- 52. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two (2) or more counterparts, which may be photocopied into an electronic file, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument, and it shall not be necessary in making proof to produce or account for more than one counterpart.
- 53. Binding Effect. All of the covenants, agreements, terms and conditions to be observed and performed by the parties hereto shall be applicable to and binding upon their respective heirs, personal representatives, successors, and, to the extent assignment is permitted hereunder, their respective assigns.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Landlord and Tenant have executed this lease as of the date first above written.

GUARANTY

The undersigned (the "Guarantor"), hereby guarantees to each of the Landlords identified below (the "Landlord" or "Landlords", as the context so requires) the complete and punctual payment and performance of all of the obligations of those entities designated or identified below (the "Tenant" or "Tenants", as the context so requires), under those certain lease agreements set out and identified below (the "Lease" or "Leases", as the context so requires), including, without limitation, the payment of all rent and other sums owed by the Tenants to the Landlords identified below. The identity of the Landlords, Tenants, and Leases are as follows:

Landlord	WAG Development, Ltd.
Tenant	Remarkable Healthcare of Fort Worth, LP
Date	December 13th , 2010

This instrument is a guarantee of payment and performance, not of collectability. Guarantor's liability under this Guaranty for the complete and punctual payment of all rent and other sums under each of the Leases designated above (the "Obligations") shall arise immediately and automatically without notice, demand, or any other action by Landlord. In addition, Guarantor shall pay, and upon request of any Landlord shall promptly reimburse that Landlord, for all costs and expenses (including, without limitation, court costs, collection charges, and attorneys' fees and expenses) incurred by any Landlord in connection with the evaluation, protection, assertion, or enforcement of a Landlord's rights, powers, or remedies under this Guaranty.

Without notice to Guarantor and without releasing, discharging, impairing, or otherwise affecting any obligation of Guarantor under this Guaranty, a Landlord may, by action or inaction, in its sole, absolute, and unlimited discretion: agree with a Tenant to amend or modify a Lease; compromise, settle, extend the time for payment or performance of all or any part of the Obligations or any other obligations guaranteed by this Guaranty for the benefit of its Tenant or any other guarantor; release any Tenant or any other guarantor from its liability for all or any part of the Obligations or any such other obligations; release all or any part of security for all or any part of the Obligations or any such other obligations; modify any documents or instruments relating to the Obligations or any such other obligations (except this Guaranty); extend the time for making any deposit or for granting a security interest in property securing or intended to secure all or any part of the Obligations; make advances for the purpose of performing any obligation of a Tenant under any of the Leases designated above that may be in default at any time; refuse or fail to enforce any or all of Guarantor's rights, powers, or remedies under any Lease or this Guaranty; assign or transfer its interests in, to, and under any Lease and/or any amendments thereto; or deal with any Tenant or any other guarantor as if this Guaranty were not in effect. It is the intent of the parties that Guarantor shall remain liable for payment and performance of all of the Obligations and all other obligations guaranteed hereby, notwithstanding any act or thing that might otherwise operate as a legal or equitable discharge of a surety.

Should any part of a payment to or for the benefit of a Landlord and with respect to the Obligations be invalidated, declared to be fraudulent or preferential, set aside, or required for any reason to be repaid or paid over to a trustee, receiver, or other person under any insolvency law or any other law or rule of equity, to the extent of that payment or repayment, the Obligations (or the part thereof) intending to have been satisfied shall be revived and continued in full force and effect as if that payment had not been made, and Guarantor shall continue to be primarily liable for that obligation.

This Guaranty will be governed by the laws of the State and all parties consent to venue in the County where the Demised Premises is located as defined in the lease.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Guarantor executes and delivers this Guaranty as of this the 13th day of December, 2010.

(b) In the event that in connection with maintenance of the Additional Drainage Easement, it is necessary for WAG or Realty Capital (or their respective employees, agents, contractors or subcontractors) to enter onto the property of the other, the Parties each hereby grant to the other such temporary construction and maintenance easements ("Temporary Easements") on such portions of their respective property for such periods of time, and from time to time, as may be reasonably necessary for the purpose of performing the maintenance and/or repairs of the Additional Drainage Easement. Except as is reasonable and necessary in the performance of such maintenance and/or repair work, neither Party will in any way use or permit the Temporary Easements to be used in a manner which would unreasonably interfere with the other's use and enjoyment of its property.

(c) In the event that in connection with construction of the Detention Improvements it is necessary for WAG (or its respective employees, agents, contractors or subcontractors) to enter onto Lot 2R-2-3 or Lot 2R-1 of the Realty Capital Property, Realty Capital hereby grants to WAG a temporary access and construction easement on such portions of Lot 2R-2-3 and Lot 2R-1 of the Realty Capital Property for such periods of time, and from time to time, as may be reasonably necessary for the purpose of constructing the Detention Improvements. Except as is reasonable and necessary in the performance of such construction work, WAG will not use or permit the forgoing easement to be used in a manner which would unreasonably interfere with Realty Capital's use and enjoyment of its property.

10. General Provisions relating to Breach or Default; Late Fees.

(a) Default. A default ("Default") shall be deemed to have occurred hereunder if a Party shall breach or fail to perform, observe or meet any covenant or condition made in this Agreement, or if a Party shall breach or fail to perform, observe or meet any of their respective obligations under this Agreement (other than a default in the payment of money for which no notice shall be required), and such breach or failure shall not be corrected within thirty (30) days after receipt by the defaulting party (the "Defaulting Party") of notice from a non-defaulting party (the "Non-defaulting Party"), or, in the event such breach or failure cannot reasonably be cured within thirty (30) days, if the Defaulting Party shall not have commenced, within said 30-day period to cure such breach or Default, and be diligently pursuing such cure. Notwithstanding the above, in no event shall a Default be allowed to extend beyond a total period of 60 days.

(b) Remedies. If a Default occurs which is not cured within the applicable cure period, then the Non-defaulting Party may (i) cure such default, and be reimbursed by the Defaulting Party for all reasonable costs and expenses incurred in curing such default, (ii) seek injunctive relief against the Defaulting Party, or (iii) file a Lien Claim (in the case of a monetary default). Each Party's obligation to pay its pro rata share of the Costs of Construction, maintenance, taxes and any other costs under this Agreement shall be secured by a lien on their respective property for the unpaid amount due, together with the Non-defaulting Party's costs and reasonable attorney's fees in enforcing and foreclosing upon such lien; provided, however, such lien shall attach only upon recordation of a notice thereof in the real property records of Tarrant County, Texas, which notice shall include the following information: the name of the lien claimant; a description of the Defaulting Party's property; a description of the work performed or damage suffered which has given rise to the claim of a lien and a statement itemizing the amount thereof; and a statement that the lien is claimed pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement ("Lien Claim"). Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary contained herein, (i) the Non-defaulting Party shall give the Defaulting Party not less than ten (10) days written notice prior to filing any Lien Claim, (ii) all liens created hereunder shall be and remain subordinate to all existing and future liens of third party lenders which made acquisition or construction loans secured by the Property.

Realty Capital hereby waives any claim, for any and all consequential, punitive, exemplary, incidental, or delay damages arising from or connected with WAG's failure to timely complete any of the Detention Improvements. (d) No Waiver. No failure of any Party to exercise any power given to such Party hereunder or to insist upon strict compliance by any other Party with its obligations hereunder and no custom or practice of the Parties in variance with the terms hereof shall constitute a waiver of any Party's right to demand compliance with the terms thereof.

(e) No Termination. The Parties expressly agree that any Party's breach of or default under this Agreement shall not entitle either Party to cancel, rescind, or otherwise terminate this Agreement. Such limitation shall not affect in any manner any other rights or remedies which the Non-defaulting Party may have hereunder by reason of any such breach or default.

(f) Attorneys Fees. In the event of any legal proceedings arising out of this Agreement, the prevailing Party shall be entitled to recover from the non-prevailing Party its reasonable attorney's fees and expenses and court costs.

(g) Late Fees. If WAG does not receive any payment referenced in Section 6 or 7 herein within ten (10) days after such payment is due, WAG, at its option, may charge such non-paying Party a late charge equal to five percent (5%) of the amount due and such late charge shall be due and payable by such non-paying Party to WAG immediately upon written notice to such non-paying Party. WAG's ability to charge a late fee shall be in addition to any and all other remedies available to WAG pursuant to this Agreement.

11. Force Majeure. If for any reason a Party is unable to comply with the terms of this Agreement (through no fault of the Party itself) because of inability to obtain required approvals from any Governmental Authority (including, without limitation, approval of site plans and/or construction drawings or issuance of building permits) or because of acts of war, riot, civil commotion, strike, fire, flood, or acts of God, unforeseeable shortages of materials, terrorism, inclement weather, delays in approvals by another Party, or delays caused by any other governmental or quasi-governmental agency, and new governmental restrictions (collectively, "Force Majeure Delays"), deadlines for commencement and completion of construction shall be extended by one day for each day that a Force Majeure Delay exists.

12. General Covenant of Mutual Cooperation and Good Faith. WAG and Realty Capital agree to mutually cooperate with each other and the City and to do all things as necessary to assist each other in meeting the requirements of the City and the SWFMA. The Parties agree that they will at all times and in all matters respecting the development of the Property deal with each other in good faith, will cooperate with each other in carrying out the development of the Property, will not unreasonably withhold or delay consent when needed by any other Party hereto and provided for or required herein, and will execute and deliver any document reasonably needed by any other Party hereto in order to fulfill the purposes of this Agreement.

13. Covenants Run With the Land. The rights, obligations and benefits established pursuant to this Agreement shall run with the land and be appurtenant to the Nursing Home Tract and Realty Capital Property and shall constitute liens upon such tracts foreclosable by judicial action and shall be binding on WAG and Realty Capital and their respective successors and assigns and all subsequent owners of any portion of the Property.

14. No Partnership or Agency. WAG and Realty Capital agree that they are not partners or joint venturers and neither this Agreement nor any actions taken by either Party pursuant to this Agreement shall constitute or be construed as creating any type of partnership or joint venture.
